

The Many Faces of Provence Tour

Tour Overview

Location: Located in the far southeast of France, Provence is known for its lovely Mediterranean climate, fields of sunflowers, vineyards, the Impressionists, its Papal palace and Roman ruins. Though most people are somewhat familiar with this region of France, few realize just how diverse are the many areas that comprise Provence, or how deeply rooted the region's history is in that of ancient Rome.

This tour is based in Avignon, which is located 3 - 4 hours from Paris' Charles de Gaulle Airport by express train.

Tour Type: Hub & Spoke Tour. You will pick up your rental bikes on your first full day in Avignon.

Terrain: The terrain, like everything about this region, is diverse. While there are lots of ups and downs on this tour (some challenging), you will also enjoy long, relatively flat stretches of effortless cycling.

Enjoy free wine tasting opportunities nearly everywhere along your route.

Perched medieval villages bathed in the warm Provencal sun.

The colorful city of Avignon with its medieval wall surrounding the city and its former Papal palace.

Avignon, Your Hub

Avignon is a vibrant southern city, full of historical sights. Must-sees include the city's many museums, churches and the Palais des Papes, the residence of the Popes who moved here from Rome in the 14th century when Rome was politically unstable. Avignon's medieval center is completely surrounded by ramparts, giving the city a most unusual look.

Day Trip Descriptions

Spoke 1: Vintage Vaucluse

Route: Begins and ends in Avignon. Largely flat with just a couple of climbs.

Distance: 59 km / 36 miles

Description: This day trip takes you through the many vineyards of the Vaucluse Department and offers two noteworthy destinations: Isle-sur-la-Sorgue, with the five branches of the River Sorgue meandering through it; and the charming village of Fontaine de Vaucluse, where you can visit the source of the River Sorgue. Gushing out of a 230 meter high cliff, the underground spring is the world's fifth most powerful resurgent river. This route features peaceful roads through woods and vineyards; and quaint tiny villages to explore such as le Thor and Jonquerettes.

Spoke 2: Papal Grapes

Route: Begins and ends in Avignon. Mostly flat except for the areas around Chateauneuf-du-Pape.

Distance: 52.6 km / 39 miles

Description: This day trip takes you through the vineyards that belonged to the papacy when, during the 14th century, the popes resided in Avignon and maintained a summer residence near Chateauneuf-du-Pape. You leave Avignon by way of the Isle de la Barthelasse, an island in the middle of the Rhone River with splendid views of Avignon. The route takes you down tiny roads through beautiful orchards, along the cliff-studded Rhone River to the village of Roquemaure, and then to the vineyards of Chateauneuf-du-Pape. Chateauneuf is a world renowned center of wine making, as the Chateauneuf vintage is one of the world's most exclusive appellations. Other villages worthy of exploration include Bedarrides and Entraigues.

Option: Optional side trip to the city of Orange with its Roman Triumphal Arch and Amphitheatre, both of which date to the first century of the Common Era. Side trip adds 20 km / 12 miles and lots of rolling terrain.

Spoke 3: Vintage Heights

Route: Begins and ends in Avignon. Mostly flat, with some rolling terrain and a couple of climbs near the end. Optional side trip provides additional mileage and challenge.

Distance: 43 km / 27 miles

Description: This day trip takes you to the lovely wine villages of the Cotes du Rhone appellation in the uplands of the Gard Department. The route begins with an option to spend some time in Avignon's sister city, Villeneuve-les-Avignon, which boasts a number of notable sites of its own. After following the towering cliffs of the Rhone River to the village of Roquemaure, you head west into gently rolling vineyards and the charming wine villages of Saint-Laurent-des-Arbres, Lirac, and Tavel.

Option: Optional side trip into the wooded peaks to the west with their unusual granite outcroppings adds 15.3 km / 10 miles. Though challenging, this side trip offers incredible scenery and spectacular views.

Spoke 4: Pont du Gard

Route: Begins and ends in Avignon. Lots of ups and downs and some long climbs. Optional side trip provides additional mileage and challenge.

Distance: 58 km / 36 miles

Description: This day trip's primary destination is the Roman aqueduct called the Pont du Gard. Constructed by the Romans in the 1st century to transport clean drinking water to the Roman city of Nîmes, this remarkable aqueduct bridges the Gard today as it has for 2000 years. You'll also cycle through a number of charming medieval villages like 16th century Aramon, which feels forgotten by time. If you're visiting in September, you may even experience a running of the bulls! The area surrounding the Pont du Gard is a park, complete with riverside beaches and a lovely picnic area.

Option: Optional side trip to the magnificently perched village of Castillon-du-Gard adds 11 km / 7 miles and a very long climb. Your efforts are rewarded by one of France's most beautiful villages and extraordinary views.

Spoke 5: Tarascon & Beaucaire

Route: Begins and ends in Avignon. The route is mostly flat along very quiet roads, with some rolling stretches before you reach Tarascon.

Distance: 56 km / 35 miles

Description: This day trip's primary destinations are the sister cities of Tarascon and Beaucaire. Facing one another on either side of the Rhone River, they have been centers of commerce since antiquity. Tarascon boasts a fairytale 15th century chateau, considered to be one of the finest fortified medieval castles in the whole of France. The route takes you first down the wooded shores of the Rhone and then along the tops of the hills that border the Rhone to Tarascon.
